CAST BIOGRAPHIES

Andy Ryan Gardner (Russian Officer)

is thrilled to return to the Leshner Stage after a decade of absence. He began training in the Center's Young Rep Program when he was fifteen. The classes were fun, informative, and prepared him for life at UCLA's theater school. While attending UCLA he was cast in various roles that led him to be noted as a quirky and versatile character actor. Roles ranged from a drugged out, Vietnam medic in Tracers, to a licentious priest in The Devils. For this role, the "Monty" was indeed "Full" for all of his fellow classmates, professors, and parents to be unfortunately subjected to, numerous times. He is happy to be keeping his clothes on for this performance, and thanks the incredible staff, cast and crew of Center REP for this opportunity to once again foray into the lights with friendly folk. He loves his mother, father, girlfriend, and occasionally his brother.

CREATIVE TEAM

George Bernard Shaw (Playwright) was born in 1856 in Dublin, the son of a civil servant. His education was irregular, due to his dislike of any organized training. After working in an estate agent's office for some time, he moved to London as a young man in 1876, where he established himself as a leading music and theatre critic in the eighties and nineties and became a prominent member of the Fabian Society, for which he composed many pamphlets. He began his literary career as a novelist; as a fervent advocate of the new theatre of Ibsen (The Quintessence of Ibsenism, 1891) he decided to write plays in order to illustrate his criticism of the English stage. His earliest dramas were called appropriately Plays Pleasant and Unpleasant (1898) and included Widower's Houses and Mrs. Warren's Profession in the latter category and Arms and the Man and Candida as his Plays Pleasant. Other important plays by Shaw are Caesar and Cleopatra (1901), Major Barbara (1905), Misalliance (1910), Androcles and the Lion (1912), and Pygmalion (1912), later adapted into the musical My Fair Lady. It is a combination of the dramatic, the comic, and the social corrective that gives Shaw's comedies their special flavor. Shaw's complete works appeared in thirty-six volumes between 1930 and 1950, the year of his death.

ABOUT CENTER REPERTORY COMPANY

Center REP is the resident, professional theatre company of the Leshner Center for the Arts. Our season consists of eight productions a year – a variety of musicals, dramas and comedies, both classic and contemporary, that continually strive to reach new levels of artistic excellence and professional standards.

Our mission is to celebrate the power of the human imagination by producing emotionally engaging, intellectually involving, and visually astonishing live theatre, and through Outreach and Education programs, to enrich and advance the cultural life of the communities we serve.

What does it mean to be a producing theatre?

We hire the finest professional directors, actors and designers to create our productions at Center REP. These are not touring productions – they're conceived and developed here, the sets and costumes are built in our shops, and the actors rehearse in our rehearsal hall. Whether the production is a Bay Area premiere or a Shakespearean classic, each is devised to be a one of a kind, artistic creation that will be a unique theatre experience for our audience.

What does it mean to be a professional theatre?

It means that all our artists and artisans are career theatre-practitioners. Many of the actors in this production are members of Actors' Equity Association; many of our directors and designers are members of professional unions. All do theatre because it is their profession and their passion.

We are very proud to have the opportunity to produce professional theatre for our community in the beautiful theatres here at the Leshner Center for the Arts. Thank you for your support!
